Property

Leopolis Hotel is 5* unique property located in historic stone building in the very central location of Lviv. It has preserved the original structure typical for medieval city. Here you can still feel the romanticism spirit and the old city Bohemian atmosphere.

Leopolis Hotel occupies the restored building that is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It's a great place to explore history, culture and entertainment that are vastly offered by Lviv City.

Leopolis Hotel is a perfect place for business meetings as well as for rest after intensive business day or exciting city tour.

Our professional team is offering highest standards with personal touch to assure guest stay at the Leopolis Hotel be comfortable and memorable.

Lviv

Property

The building where Leopolis Hotel is located dates back to the late 19th century. It was acquired by the Hartwall Family in 2005 and has since been fully restored.

Leopolis Hotel includes:

- 72 guestrooms of standard, deluxe and junior suite categories
- 2 restaurants
- Library and Lounge bar
- Cigar lounge
- SPA and gym
- Conference facilities with total area of 275 m²
- Catering services for up to 10 000 people.

Hartwall Family, Finland

Then...

- In early 19th century, founded a soft-drink company, Hartwall, which later became Finland's leading producer of soft-drinks and beers
- In 1991 Hartwall, founded Baltic Beverages Holding (BBH), part of Hartwall group, with a stronghold in Eastern Europe
- In 2002 Hartwall merged with Scottish & Newcastle
- In 2008 Scottish & Newcastle was acquired by Heineken and Carlsberg. In this process the Hartwall family sold their holding and ended a more than 200-year era in brewing and drinks industries.

...now...

- Following the exit from brewing, the family has focused on both private and public investments across the industrial and consumer sectors in Finland and abroad
- Given the family's longstanding experience in the region, Ukraine has become one of the areas for growth and where the family has several direct investments:
